(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Winchester, Va., December 10.—Miss Margaret A. Williams ninety-nine years old. Who died here last night at the home of her nephew, Charles E. Taylor, would have, in the opinion of physicians, lived some years over a century had it not been for a fall white retiring several nights since. She led a vigorous life, and attended to household, duties regularly until injured. She was the oldest member of the Kent Street Presbyterian Church, and Rev. James R. Graham, D. D. pastor of that consregation over sixty wheeling, W. Va.

John P. Robinson.

Alexandria, Va., December 10.—John P. Robinson, sixty-eight years old, an officer in the Alexandria Fartilizer and Chemical Company, died this afternoon as the result of a stroke of paralysis. During the Civil War he served in the Confederate Army, being a member of the Bjack Horse Calvary. Mr. Robinson, besides his wife leaves a daughter—Miss Josephine—and two sons—George H. and Harrie Robinson, the latter of Birmingham, Ala. He was a brother of City Treasurer Thomas W. Robinson and Mrs. West, of Fairfax.

W. Talbert Penniman. "The chief difficulty." said Business Manager Dabney yesterday, discussing the proposed dinner, 'is to secure anything like approximate figures as to the number of men who will be in town. The board will probably formulate plans to-morrow. In case the dinner idea is adopted, for enlisting the aid of Post A. Travelers' Protective Association, and the other commercial organizations of the city, as well as of the manufacturers and jobbers in determining the number of commercial men who will spend the holiday period at home."
